Re: Withdrawal from Representation re Patent Applications
MobileWebSurf.com, Inc. Matters

Dear Sanjay:

Per our previous discussion, enclosed are copies of Requests for Withdrawal As Attorney, which we have filed with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. This will confirm that we will no longer act as your counsel in connection with any of the MobileWebSurf.com, Inc. patent matters. We will have no further responsibility to render legal services in connection therewith.

It is imperative that you obtain new patent counsel as soon as possible. I have not been contacted by anyone identifying themselves as replacement patent counsel. We remain available to confer with you or your new attorney to the extent necessary to avoid prejudice to your rights.

In connection with the termination of our services for you, we have enclosed all of your application files detailed in the attached delivery list. Please review the files to ensure safe receipt of all of the files in the delivery list, and execute and return to us a copy of the delivery list in the self-addressed and stamped envelope enclosed.

In connection with the termination of our services for you, all of our statements for fees and disbursements are now due and payable. We request that you pay promptly any statement previously rendered to you which remains unpaid.

Very truly yours,

David A. Hall
